December 12, 2008 09:54 PM - Mississauga's Margherita Cina won a gold medal for Canada today at the World Junior Wushu Championships, taking place in Bali, Indonesia.

In day-three action, Cina, who trains out of Sunny Tang Martial Arts Centre in Mississauga, beat competitors from Japan and Vietnam in Women's Group A (age 16-18) Spear event.

In earlier competition, Cina placed fourth in Group A (age 16-18) Female Straight sword.

Canada now has 10 medals, including three gold. The medal haul is the largest-ever by a Canadian team.

Wushu dates back centuries and is a time-honoured sport in China with millions of practitioners around the world. Using various weapons apparatus and hand routines, Wushu incorporates acrobatic jumps, flips and swirling manoeuvres to demonstrate the skills and agility of the athletes. It was made famous by the likes of Jet Li and Jackie Chan.

Ricoh Coliseum will play host next Oct. 24-29 to the 10th World Wushu Championships. Some 85 countries and 1,500 competitors are expected to participate.
